

how does google search work?

All

Videos

News

Images

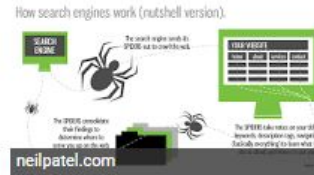

More

Settings

Tools

About 7,790,000,000 results (0.44 seconds)

Google uses automated programs called spiders or crawlers, just like most search engines. Also like other search engines, Google has a large index of keywords and where those words can be found. ... Google uses a trademarked algorithm called PageRank, which assigns each Web page a relevancy score.

The Google Search Engine | HowStuffWorks

<https://computer.howstuffworks.com/internet/basics/google1.htm>

About this result Feedback

People also ask

How do Google get information?

How does the search engine work?

How does Google predictive search work?

What is Google's search algorithm?

Feedback

Google Search - Discover How Google Search Works

<https://www.google.com/search/howsearchworks/>

How Search works. For a typical query, there are thousands, even millions, of webpages with potentially relevant information. So, how does Google figure out ...

Algorithms · Search · Crawling and Indexing · None · Google Search

Videos

Google uses language learning to best understand what you mean

Google uses web crawlers to get the best articles based on what you asked.

Google offers answers to other questions related to your question

Google gives you the most relevant and quick answers possible.